Champion Coulton Writes That He Is as Good To-Day as He Ever Was and That He Is Sure of Winning From Williams.

Copyright, 1914, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World).

JOHN COULTON writes that he isn't at all worried because of Williams. He is entirely well and is in the best of health. He is sure of winning from Williams. He is sure of winning from Williams. He is sure of winning from Williams.

THE London Times suggests that it would be a good sporting proposition to hold the international match between the English and American teams at the same time as the match between the English and American teams.

CHARLIE RITCHIE, who recently won the English title, is now in London. He is now in London. He is now in London. He is now in London. He is now in London.

THE unbroken record you may have heard of is the record of the English team. It is the record of the English team. It is the record of the English team. It is the record of the English team.

THE Federal League is going right ahead with testing the reserve clause. It is going right ahead with testing the reserve clause. It is going right ahead with testing the reserve clause.

WILLIAM RITCHIE says all the time that he is in the best of health. He is in the best of health. He is in the best of health. He is in the best of health.

WILLIE continues: "Everybody says that I am in the best of health. I am in the best of health. I am in the best of health. I am in the best of health."

Giants Jump From Third
To First Place on Road
With Crippled Lineup

The Champions Win 13 Out of 20 Games Without the Entire Regular Team in a Single Battle—McGraw Considers the Record the Best His Club Has Made in Ten Years.

By Bozeman Dulger.
AFTER their longest road trip of the year the Giants are back on the job today, having won thirteen games out of twenty. And this McGraw regards as one of the best records his club has made in ten years. It is not the percentage on which he bases his statement, but the fact that the champs played at a rate of 600 or better for twenty starts without the regular lineup in a single game. First Larry Doyle was laid up, and then Morrie dropped out of the lineup with a badly bruised leg and may not be able to perform at first base for a week yet. Just the same, the secondary or reserve squad filled in the missing men and the old machine went rolling along well enough to climb from third place to the leadership of the league.

For nearly a year," said McGraw last night, "I have been asked why I kept Grant, and all I could say was 'as a precaution.' I guess the fans who were worried about the team that means to have a good ball player around to step in when needed. On the trip and has hit as well as could be expected. By having a good extra outfielder I have been able to switch Rodgers to first base and balance things up."

McGraw's march to the front by cutting on the reserves is an excellent illustration of Frank "Chonore" remark the other day that the most important thing to a team that expected a pennant was secondary strength. The Highlander manager says that no club ever won a pennant without a strong second team hanging around a bench, and it would appear that he has the right dope.

The Highlanders started for the West last night without having had to go through the experience of battling Walter Johnson. The rain blotted out the Washington bughouse.

much better than Chance's men could have done, and for that the boys are grateful. The Highlanders have a rest to-day, as no game is scheduled until they reach Chicago, where they tackle the White Sox to-morrow.

As the double-header in Philadelphia was called off before noon, the Giants got in town in the afternoon and had a chance to look things over before dinner. They are a little bit worried about the condition of Fletcher and Morrie, fearing that the full strength of the club will be needed against the Westerners.

Fletcher's arm, under the X-Ray, showed no break in the bone, but it is a bad bone bruise. It is very painful for him to bend his wrist, and it will be several days before he can take a chance on practicing.

As a result of his attack of tonsillitis and the hard work following, Big Jeff Thompson is as thin as a rail and appears to have lost forty or fifty pounds. "He says, though, that he feels great and would like to keep going if possible. The loss of Cash appears to have helped his control as well as his speed."

"Did you work on this last trip?" I asked Matty last night, forgetting about his experience at Philadelphia. "Did I work?" he repeated. "Well, if you had seen those boys popping that pill against the fence down at Philly, you would have thought I worked. Though I won, they fanned me for sixteen safe blows. For a while I thought they would kill some of our infielders with those line drives, but luckily we escaped any further catastrophes. Yes, I worked."

Larry Doyle says the Giant players are anxious to see Dave Robertson, the new outfielder, get in as a regular hitter.

According to the regular run of things it is Matty's day to pitch, and the Old Gent was out exercising in his car this morning to be in shape.
